POLICE ANNOUNCE ARREST IN ROSA LISOWSKI DISAPPEARANCE

(San Diego) San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives have arrested a suspect for the murder of Rosa Lisowski which occurred in March of this year.

On March 24, 2008, 50-year-old Rosa Lisowski disappeared after walking her young child to school at 2930 Barnard Street in San Diego. An extensive search of the area as well as interviews with family and friends provided few details related to her disappearance. The Missing Persons Unit initiated the follow-up investigation, and has pursued several investigative leads over the last five months. Throughout the investigation, family and friends, the Point Loma community and San Diego County Crime Stoppers have provided support and valuable resources to Rosa's immediate family and to the police department.

On September 5, 2008, Homicide Unit detectives developed probable cause to believe that Ms. Lisowski was in fact murdered and that her husband, Henry Lisowski (67 years) is the suspect in both her disappearance and her murder. This evening, at about 6:00 p.m., Henry Lisowski was arrested at his residence on West Point Loma Boulevard. He was transported to Police Headquarters for processing and interview, and later booked into County Jail on one count of murder.
